

EMERGING MAKER AWARD

For the 50th Anniversary of Norfolk Contemporary Craft Society in 2022, the Society is initiating the NCCS Emerging Maker Award

The award is intended for a maker living or working in Norfolk, who is just starting out or is already a maker seeking to further develop contemporary craft skills.

The NCCS are fully committed to encouraging, supporting and guiding the new generation of makers. The NCCS welcomes applications from all craftspeople who would take full advantage of free membership for 1 year.

There will be 3 awards available in 2022.

The selected makers would for one year:

- Have the opportunity to exhibit at each exhibition.
- Pay no membership subscription, or exhibition fees.
- Receive promotion equivalent to other NCCS Members on the Society website, in print and on social media platforms.
- Have access to NCCS resources, including the option of advice, or discussion with other Members.
- Be included in all general meetings and social events
- To encourage applicants in full time jobs, the usual obligation to steward at exhibitions can be waived.

Please apply by July 31st 2022
